

When the Big Storms Hit:

The Role of Wetlands to Limit Urban and Rural Flood Damage

Keynote presentation by Natalia Moudrak, Infrastructure Adaptation Program Director, Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation

at the Annual Awards Evening hosted by Ausable Bayfield Conservation

Thursday, March 22, 2018 • World Water Day

at Ironwood Golf Club, 70969 Morrison Line, 2 km east of Exeter

- 5 p.m. Social Time
- 5:30 p.m. Light Supper
- 6 p.m. Conservationist of the Year Award • Years of Service Awards
- 6:30 p.m. Release of Updated Watershed Report Cards
- 6:40 p.m. Feature Presentation by Natalia Moudrak,
Director of the Infrastructure Adaptation Program,
Intact Centre on Climate Adaptation,
When the Big Storms Hit: The Role of Wetlands to Limit Urban and Rural Flood Damage.

No fee to attend. • Please RSVP to Sharon Pavkeje by Thursday, March 15, 2018 for meal numbers.

Phone 519-235-2610 • Toll-free 1-888-286-2610 • Fax 519-235-1963 • Email spavkeje@abca.on.ca

If you have special dietary needs, please let us know in advance. Thank you.